

Structure of Economic Issues

Economic Issues is an independent academic journal run and organised by its editorial board. The structure and functions of the editorial board is as follows:

- a. The editorial board is chaired by the Editor in Chief.
- b. Day to day activities linked to the submission and review processes are managed by the Associate Editor.
- c. Individual submissions making it through the pre-screening process are allocated to other editorial board members who will communicate with the authors and referees.
- d. Once papers are accepted the Pre-Production Editor will ensure that papers are correctly formatted.
- e. Formatted papers are then passed to the Production Editor for preparation for publication the Website and in hard copy.
- f. The Website is maintained by the Website Editor.

Economic Issues is published by the Economic Issues Educational Charity, a registered charity. The Economics Issues Educational Charity is overseen by the Economic Issues Trustees Board. The Economic Issues editorial board and the Economic Issues Trustees Board are separate independent bodies to ensure the editorial independence of the journal.